She believed that Stannis Baratheon was the Prince Who Was Promised, and went to great lengths to fulfill the prophecy—including sacrificing his own daughter, Shireen, to the fire. In that darkness the White Walkers came for the first time. None knew why the White Walkers came when they did, 2, years after The Long Night signing of the Pact and 8, years before Robert's Rebellion but they killed all in their path.

Once the horde of corpses arrived, though, my brain quickly turned off. David Jon The Long Night hastily forced to dive for cover, as Viserion catches sight of him and let loose a torrent of fire, that incinerates the courtyard and barely misses Jon. Legend says that the Wall was infused with powerful magic spells by the Children of the Forest that prevent the White Walkers from crossing it. It was written by David Benioff and D. But despite waving goodbye to Thrones, the story is far from. And there was a big hoo-ha when it was announced that the eighth and final season was likely to premiere in June rather than May which is still a solid eight months away.
