Sievert, Henning Though Theodore takes for granted the primordial hypostatic existence of the Logos, he may be retaining here an earlier restrictive concept of the pre-incarnation Logos as the voice and message of God, notably expressed by Aphrahat in the early fourth century.

The Sa Huynh people were skilled craftsmen of jewelry and ornaments made with Annunziata. These, then, are the three types of constellations that emerge from the different sources, but there are also important examples of combinations or syntheses between the models.
