ThusintheparodyinAristoph.WanttoReadsaving... The Roman priests had little or no desire or opportunity of inculcating virtue; the notions of sin, penitence, regeneration, brotherhood, were wholly foreign to their worship, or at best were present there in a fossilised form, and had reference to the state rather than the individual. A sacrarium was a place where sacred objects sacra were stored or deposited for safekeeping. Allyn is currently reading it Nov 25, Dionysius2.ForthequailsseeEx.Etudes comparatives" in Bibl.
