Then the city and sanctuary will be destroyed. If the prophets, in portraying future bliss, used expressions such as wealth, abundance and similar worldly terms, they did this because the human language does not contain the necessary words to describe that blessed state in the spiritual world. The obvious conclusion is this: If Messiah was not on earth years after a decree was issued to rebuild Jerusalem, then Daniel was a false prophet and his book has no business being in the Hebrew Scriptures.

The Lord Jesus Christ taught three and a half years and suffered in the 33rd or 34th year. Since God inhabits the souls of the faithful as in a Temple. It appears, that the difficult task of exposing the falsity of the approaching final false messiah – the Antichrist – will lie on these new Christians from among the Jews. LoginToYourAccount.
