We are reconciled to God, when He is pacified towards us through His Son, in whom we believe. Romans -8 is an example of such a scripture. The gift by grace, then, not only procures to him who receives it the pardon of that one offense on account of which he fell under condemnation, but it brings to him the pardon of his many personal offenses, although these offenses deepen and aggravate the condemnation, and bear witness that he allows the deeds of his first father.
