As the winner of the first round, Drew chose photo realism as the style. A unique look for someone who is dying for some wings.

One canvas wanted it on her ankle and the other wanted it on her sternum. Never the head or body. This could be an angel or even possibly a fairy.

In Christian iconography, they have always been intangible, and depicted with wings. It is also one way of showing to others that you are humbling yourself in front of someone mightier than you. His chest ached as panic filled .
