They pass these gestures among themselves, the first violin taking the lead. The thematic fragments work up to the secondary key, B-flat minor, and at that point the volume, which has been hushed throughout, suddenly and rapidly builds. The piano right hand adds descending chords. CelloSonatainBflatMajor,Op. The piano accompaniment is barer here, until the viola leaves its harmonies. This new material is actually derived from the wide dotted-rhythm upbeat at the beginning of the B section theme, specifically as this upbeat appeared in the epilogue and re-transition.
