P 17 Everest, first ascent, Southeast Ridge, Night after night he sat between her and a little dog. For answer they would open his great mouth to show us his teeth – the big blunt canines and old molars worn down to stumps.

TheBookofaNaturalistHudson,W. In his finely formed head you saw something of his aristocratic character; the ears were small and cleanly cut, there was a tinge of pink in the nostrils, his face was handsome, and the expression of his countenance exceedingly intelligent—I should call it even a sweet expression if the term were not inconsistent with his look of alertness and sagacity.
