It had just shot a new bud but, having no real root, how could it reach full bloom? The only apparent ideology was a deep attachment to the land, religion and the ruler the holy trinity that the Thai flag embodies and which has become identified with the best and the worst of Thai nationalism. I was sick for nearly a month and spent a lot of that time lying in bed and refusing to read. Because these translations are meant to be read primarily for enjoyment by people who may not even know where Thailand is located left of Vietnam, man, below China's paunch I have opted to use as few words in Thai as possible and keep footnotes to the bare minimum. This sarcastic thought crossed my mind unbidden and after lingering there for about four seconds, produced a flash which started a new train of thoughts in the head of the fifth member of the Witsanan family. There was also a strand in nearly a University Press. In the early years of this century it was good. April Swanson.
